HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Honesdale, Aug. 1.—On Monday next the Wayne-Susquehanna senatorial conference will be held in Honesdale.

L. M. Atkinson purchased at public sale, at the court house on Wednesday, the plant and building of the Hawley Times. Price $1,750. For the past year E. B. Calloway, of Honesdale, operated the plant under lease. Mr. Calloway will return to Honesdale.

Next Sunday, Rev. William H. Swift will preach in the Presbyterian church, in the morning only. Rev. G. A. Place will conduct morning and evening services in the Methodist church; Rev. G. C. Hall, a former rector will conduct services in Grace Episcopal church and Rev. C. L. Percy will occupy his pulpit in the Baptist church, morning and evening.

The Erie and Wyoming train which formerly left Honesdale at 5.10 p. m., now leaves at 7.10 p. m., this is a through train. Heretofore the last train for Scranton was the Delaware & Hudson 5.30 train.

Miss Isabella Calloway and aunt, Mrs. Francis Hawley, left this morning for a sojourn of several weeks at Ocean Grove and other pleasure resorts.

Miss Elizabeth K. Bentley, after an absence of several weeks has returned to Honesdale.

A half dozen Erie railroad officials visited Honesdale, Friday morning by special train. One of the inspectors, Edward B. Calloway who has just retired from the management of the Hawley Times, will on Monday next enter the office of the Wayne County Herald, where he has accepted a situation.

Misses Grace Jadin and Grace Spencer are spending two weeks at Asbury Park.

The announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth K. Bentley, of Honesdale, and Mr. Loring R. Gale, of Brookly, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Purdy, are at Atlantic City.

No. 4 in the Durland block on East street, is to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dusenberry.

July 31, 1852 Freedom Lodge of Odd Fellows moved their place of meeting from Prompton to Honesdale. At the same time William Welles was initiated into the order, who is now the oldest living member. The double event was duly observed in Freedom hall, Friday evening. A very interesting vocal and musical programme was rendered in the way of solos and duets, by Messrs. J. A. Bond, William Scle, Charles Dodge, Doctor Bryden, A. C. Tolley, C. F. Bullock, William Blawell and John Smith. Professor Naylor, president at the piano. Hon. George S. Purdy delivered a short address at the conclusion of which he presented to Mr. William Welles a beautiful gold watch pendant, as a testimonial from the lodge. Mr. Welles in response pleased the audience with a description of his arrival in America and locating in Honesdale and his experience as an Odd Fellow. He is a Bohemian by birth. Although eighty-three years of age, retains wonderful memory and is an interesting talker. At the close of the exercises, sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cigars, were served by gentlemen waiter. It was strictly a male gathering.
